

I cultivate rights

*The rights and liberties are exercised while also taking into account our obligations and responsibilities.
The quality of the living environment rests on a principle of mutual respect where everyone's collaboration is essential.*

September 17th to October 8th 2017

Rights Week is dedicated to the promotion and protection of the residents' rights: we all share the responsibility!

An initiative of your Residents' Counsellor, Residents' Committee, the Service Quality and Complaints Commissioner in collaboration with the Quality and Vigilance Committee of Vigi Santé.

The right to dignity
The right to receive information
The right to confidentiality
The right to respect
The right to intimacy
The right to security
The right to protection
The right to be represented
The right to be accompanied and assisted
The right to file a complaint
The right to participate
The right to receive personalized care

Keep an eye out for the program of activities planned for your CHSLD.

